

David Haberland

Executive Leader | Author | Mentor | Technology and AI Advocate

Personal Mission

In this next phase of my life, my mission is to make a meaningful difference by helping people and organizations grow with clarity, courage, and compassion. I believe lasting impact comes from service, strong relationships, and staying connected spiritually. I aim to use leadership, technology, and practical experience to support others in building healthier lives, stronger teams, and more resilient communities.

Professional Summary

David Haberland is an executive leader who helps leaders and teams navigate complexity, change, and growth. His work spans leadership development, technology strategy, and mentoring, with a focus on practical guidance and human centered leadership.

Education and Credentials

- MIT Sloan School of Management – Leadership certificate
- Boston University – Executive MBA

Author

Author of Leadership Awareness on Addiction and Recovery. Additional books and writing projects are in development focused on leadership, innovation, and personal growth.

Focus Areas

- Executive coaching and mentoring
- Leadership development and culture
- Technology and AI strategy
- Communication, alignment, and trust building

Contact

Email: davidhaberland@gmail.com

LinkedIn: linkedin.com/in/davidhaberland